

Young Belt and Road (YBNR) International

Young Belt and Road International is a Hong Kong-based NGO founded and directed by young people. Our members include young people with diverse academic backgrounds from all across the world. In 2017, we launched a publication project about youth development that culminated in this book. Since then, we have also co-hosted annual youth conferences that focus on the Belt and Road Initiative. By creating an open, intellectual network, we aim to find solutions for the greatest challenges of our time. For more information, please visit youngbnr.org.

Opportunities And Challenges
In Central And Eastern Europe

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the editors in the Young Belt and Road Series Editorial Board and the authors who contributed to this publication, offer our sincere gratitude to the following institutions and individuals.

In 2017, this project commenced under the support of the Research Center for Regional Coordinated Development, Zhejiang University and the Academy of International Strategy and Law of Zhejiang University. The subsequent editing and publication processes were generously sponsored by the International Academy of the Belt and Road and Greater Bay Area & Belt and Road Center, Basic Law Foundation. We express our most sincere gratitude to these organisations that have enabled this publication.

We benefitted enormously from the edits and suggestions made by Donal Scully, who is a veteran (since 1987) print and digital media journalist with experience writing and editing in UK provincial newspapers, the prestigious South China Morning Post in Hong Kong and several online news platforms as well as assorted book proofreading credits. We would also like to thank Wang Xin, a postdoctoral researcher at Zhejiang University, who helped us in refining the academic aspects of the publication.

Last but not least, there is Anne Lee and the editorial team at Joint Publishing Hong Kong, without which this publication would not have been possible.

EDITORIAL NOTE

Unless otherwise stated, the original content for all country papers in this publication was written between late-2017 to mid-2018. In view of time sensitivity, the editors made modifications, including changes to grammatical tenses and minor updates to factual statements, such as titles of individuals or facts about certain countries. Other than historical discussions, mentionings of 'Macedonia' were changed to 'North Macedonia' following the official name change in 2019.
